Black Range Artists to Exhibit at Branigan Cultural Center

Las Cruces, NM – In May, the Branigan Cultural Center will exhibit a juried membership show of the Black Range Artists, Inc. An opening reception will be held on Friday, May 7, 2010 from 5 to 7 p.m. during the First Friday Downtown Ramble. The exhibit will remain on display through May 29.

Black Range Artists, Inc. was established in 1962 to promote and encourage art in the southwest by providing information, quality exhibitions, and beneficial programs to artists and their communities. Artists from southern New Mexico and west Texas are eligible for membership.

The Branigan Cultural Center, 501 N. Main Street, is located at the north end of the downtown mall in Las Cruces. The exhibits and events are free and open to the public. Galleries are open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. For more information, contact the Branigan Cultural Center at (575) 541-2154 or visit the Center's web site at las-cruces.org/museums.
