

University Avenue Corridor Citizen Design Review Board

Function

The University District Citizen's Design Review Committee (UD-CDRC) reviews development projects in the University District Overlay, the zoning district encompassing the areas surrounding New Mexico State University, as directed in the University District Plan. The Committee ensures development consistent with the architectural and use requirements of the overlay and the goals and policies of the University District Plan.

General meeting Information

The UD-CDRC meets on the first Monday of every month at 10 am in Room 2007-A at City Hall, 700 N. Main. Agendas, minutes, and packets are available through the event calendar.

Membership

The committee shall be comprised of seven (7) members as follows: the University District area's councilor; a New Mexico State University Campus architect staff person; one citizen who owns a business in the overlay; one citizen with design expertise such as in architecture, landscape architecture, interior design, or fine arts; three citizens who own property in the overlay; and one NMSU student representative. Two of the citizen participants shall be permanent residents within the overlay and the third citizen participant may or may not be a permanent resident of the overlay.
